

3004

3004 A Sudanese Order of the Republic Grand Cross Type I

The Sudanese Order of the Republic was established on November 16, 1961, and awarded to citizens and foreigners who provided great service to the state in five classes. There are two types of the order, the earlier Governor issue and the later Democratic Republic issue with the Republic suspension. This Grand Commander set is of the 1st type with the rhino suspension and is made from silver and enamel. Contained in grey leather case of issue, brass latch closures, inside of light-green velvet raised platform, lined in cream rayon with famous jeweler

Garrard & Co. in London manufacturer logo in gold foil. Medal diameter ca. 62 mm (excluding suspension loop), neck ribbon length ca. 81 cm. Breast award diameter ca. 98 mm. Box ca. 28 x 16 x 4.5 cm.

USA-Lot, see page 4.

306388

I -

€ 650

3005 A Syrian 50th Anniversary of the Armed Forces Medal

Gilt finish, multi-piece construction, base of five-pointed gilt star with balls at tips, second tier of silver disc with five-pointed star with balls at